DECEMBER BOARD MEETING

DECEMBER 11, 1988 RIGHT AFTER FIDALGO MEET

FARMHOUSE RESTAURANT

December 1, 1988

Dear PNA Swimmers:

November brought us another fine meet. North Kitsap did a great job, the meet was well organized and ran smoothly. I managed to do a personal best by entering an event I had never done before. That is really the way to go! There were quite a few swimmers, some back from long absences, and some new to the PNA. It was great to see them all there. There were 28 teams represented and 2 states. The largest contingent came from Team Seattle Orcas with the Tacoma Y close behind.

The holiday season is here, I tried to get it postponed by a month so I could be ready, but the powers that be said I'd still be disorganized and refused my request. I know how busy this time of year is, but I hope many of you are planning to swim in Anacortes on the 11th. The meet is a good one, and Anacortes is a nice place.

We are saddened by the loss of Gene Cady. His name has been in the PNA record book for many years, and his memory will be in our hearts for many to come.

There are a few congratulations in order in the PNA: to Dave and Debbie Addleman on the birth of their son, to Steve and Susan Freeborn on the birth of their daughter and to Linda Cazin on her marriage to Chuck Harmon. Swimming is not the only thing PNAers do well! We wish you all the best!

For the season and for the New Year, I wish you all peace and happiness. Although I complain and joke about the things that get me down, I have lots to be thankful for every day. Many of the things I have you have given me; friendship, encouragement and the chance to be myself and be accepted. I thank you all and wish you love this Holiday Season and for the years to come.

Love,

Ronoi

PNA Board Meeting
November 20, 1988

Meeting was called to order after the swim meet at North Kitsap. in attendance were: Rondi White, Lowell Johnson, Jane Moore, Hugh Moore, Forrest Brooks, Steve Peterson, Kathy Casey, Walt Reid, Linda Cazin, Donna Phelan, Gordon Gray, Terri Highland and Dennis Morgan.

MINUTES were approved as printed.

TREASURER'S REPORT was approved as submitted by Jane Moore.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

MEMBERSHIP - Hugh requested money for printing and postage for reminder cards to be sent to those PNA members who have not renewed their membership for 88-89. About 50% of the membership does not renew for various reasons. Hugh is willing to mail cards to these people. Board voted not more than $100 for the job.

RECORDS - Walt has results for the WetSet from PNA top 10 S.C. yards, World S.C. and L.C. meters and Buffalo.

BY-LAWS - Lowell will have the By-Laws ready the first part of January.

FITNESS - Jane reported that the Swim across PNA has 30 entries. Small trophies for finishers were approved.

SOCIAL - Linda Cazin has volunteered to be Banquet Chairperson, but not all around social chair.

MEETS - Entries should state that relays are free, no charge. When a distance event is on the same day as the rest of the meet, it should run slow to fast just as the other events do. This should be in the Wet Set.

NEW BUSINESS - The January meet, Husky at Foster Pool, will be the qualifying meet for people over 55 for the Senior Games. Donna Phelan reported that the Tritons have registered as a national club with the same status as PN Aquatics and Husky.

The next meeting will follow the Fidalgo meet at the Farmhouse Restaurant on December 11th. This meeting was adjourned at 3:22pm.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP OR HAVE A CURRENT SUBSCRIPTION.

Dr. Alan Sachs called with a report on the Senior World Games held in Utah recently. Both he and Juanita Correa won six out of six races! Congratulations to both of you.

He also reported that someone from Poulsbo attended and did quite well, but the name escaped him. If you are that someone from Poulsbo, please share your successes with us.

Don't forget the Bangor meet is coming up February 18th, and the entry will only appear once in the Wet Set! Also keep in mind that as this is held on the Navy Base certain security regulations are in effect. Be sure to check the meet information carefully.
